Dear Hiring Manager,

I apply with enthusiasm for a position of a Backend Developer, As well as being a valuable addition to the team and company, I am certain this would be an exceptional opportunity for me to grow both professionally and personally.

In my former role as a Backend Developer at Zummit Africa, I was responsible for Writing several code with review other developers code, and Debugging . While employed there, I helped in the development and rollout of new department practices. I'm sure that this experience will help me hit the ground running.

You will find high level summaries of my job duties/education history in my resume. If you want to see some of the projects that I work on in my spare time, see my GitHub profile: www.github.com/kolexx

I am more than happy to see this opportunity and i'll be looking forward in working with this organisation.

Sincerely,
ODEYEMI KOREDE SOLOMON
